

Shared use of personal information on the Kensetsu-Site Series

1. Scope of shared use

- Supplier (MC Data Plus, Inc.) of the Kensetsu-Site Series, an application service provider (ASP) for the construction industry
- User companies using the Kensetsu-Site Series pursuant to the Terms and Conditions for Use of Services concluded with MC Data Plus, Inc.

2. Purposes of shared use

- (1) For identification of users of the Kensetsu-Site Series
- (2) For sharing drawings and documents, etc. through the use of the Kensetsu-Site Series
- (3) For preparation and management of work ledgers, notices of matters related to sub-subcontractors, and lists of employees, etc. through the use of the Kensetsu-Site Series
- (4) For information sharing about, and operational management of, operations related to construction work in order to promote the efficiency of such operations through the use of the Kensetsu-Site Series
- (5) For communication and notification concerning after-sales services related to the Kensetsu-Site Series and various information about new services
- (6) For requests for payment of fees for using the Kensetsu-Site Series
- (7) For responding to inquiries and requests, etc. concerning the Kensetsu-Site Series
- (8) For the creation of statistical data processed into a format such that individuals cannot be identified

3. Items of personal information subjected to shared use

(1) Items indicated below

- Name, sex, address, telephone number, e-mail address, date of birth, nationality, portrait photograph, and other attribute information
- Company name, company address, department name, job title, job type, qualifications, years of experience, and other background information
- Date of medical checkup, status of enrollment in the social insurance program, blood type, blood pressure, classification for supervision of pneumoconiosis, and other information for labor health and safety management

(2) Information submitted by a user company or any other user to MC Data Plus, Inc. upon use of the Kensetsu-Site Series

4. Person responsible for management of shared use

MC Data Plus, Inc.